

Fig. 1

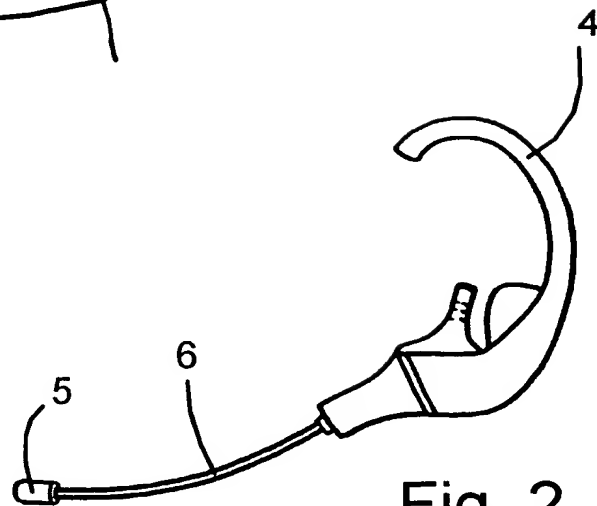

Fig. 2

FIG. 1 is a schematic diagram of a person wearing a device. The device includes a head-mounted component (1) connected by a cable (4) to a small unit (5) near the neck. A cable (6) runs down the back to a belt (2) around the waist, which contains two rectangular modules and a central circular element.

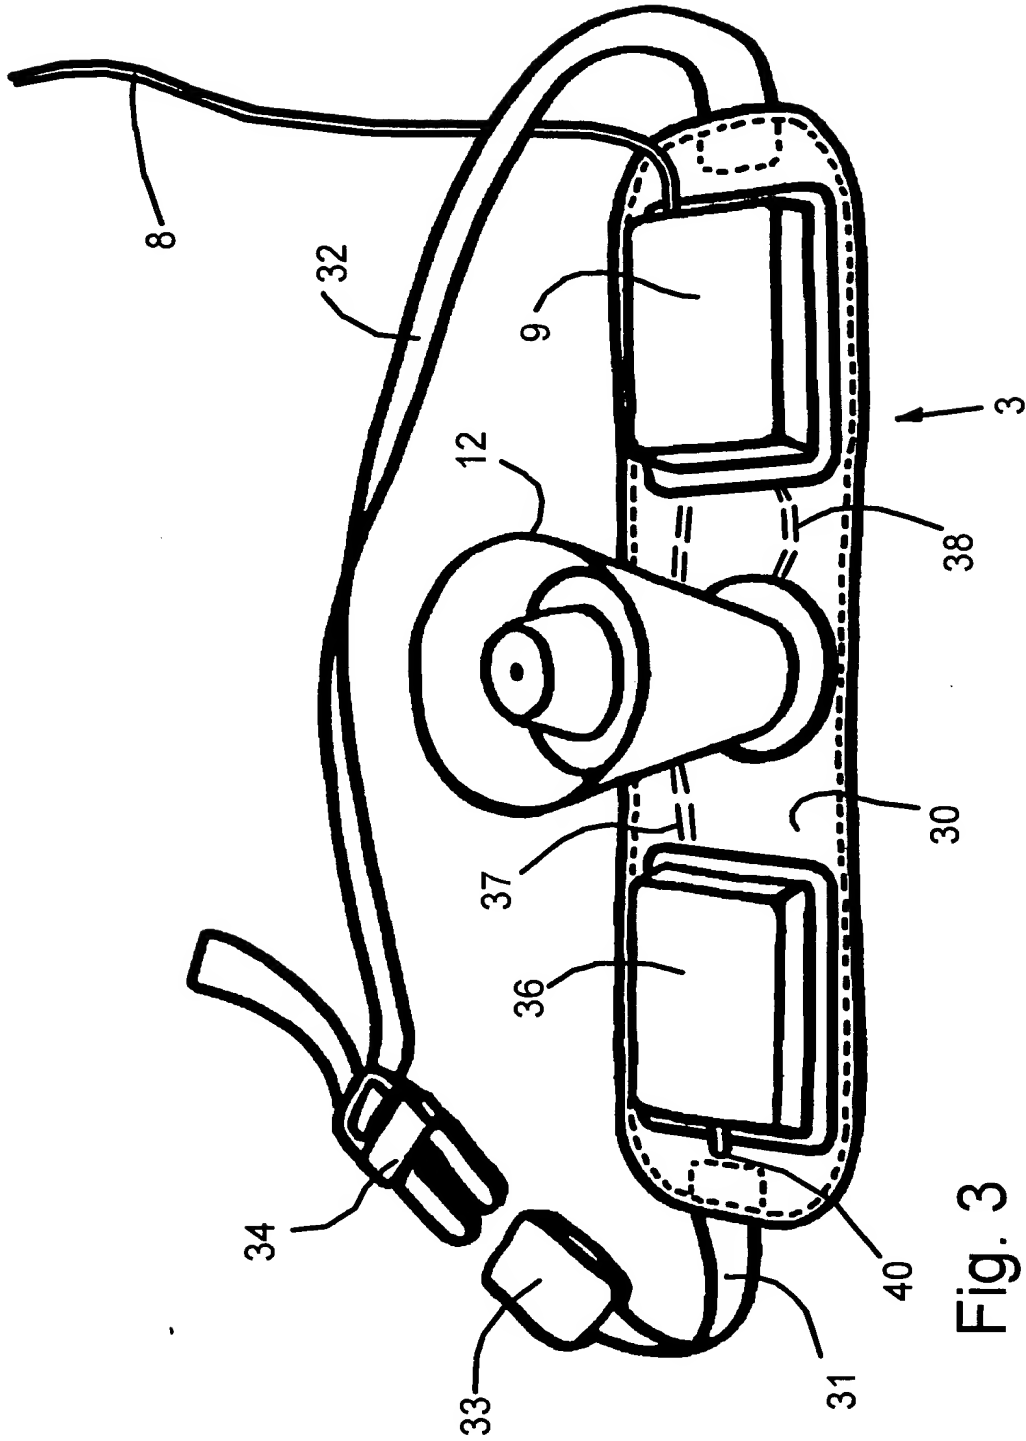

Fig. 3

